7 November 1962

STAT

STAT

STAT

	MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Plans)
	SUBJECT : Inadequate Notice by Visitors
	1. During my visit to was brought to my attention. It simply gave the flight and arrival Т	date of Security Officer.
	2. Although the cable did not request station support,
Т	sharmed to reserve a room and meet
	As hotels are currently crowded, the Chief of Support felt that if he did not reserve a room, might well be stranded
Γ	without suitable accommodations.
	3. The Chief of Support stated that this type of
_	and the second s
Γ	message was not unusual has a large number of
Γ	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their
Γ
Γ	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message.
ſ	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their
Γ	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced massage. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their messages of arrival.
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their messages of arrival.
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their messages of arrival. J. S. Earman
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their messages of arrival.
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their messages of arrival. J. S. Earman Inspector General
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their resseages of arrival. J. S. Earman Inspector General cc: Director of Security Chief, WE
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their resseages of arrival. J. S. Earman Inspector General
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their resseages of arrival. J. S. Earman Inspector General cc: Director of Security Chief, WE Shief, EE
	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their ressages of arrival. J. S. Harman Inspector General cc: Director of Security Chief, WE Chief, EE O/IG:; js (7 Nov 62) Distribution:
Γ	visitors, and he says all too frequently the messages of their arrival are as uninformative as the referenced message. 4. It is recommended that travellers be advised to be more explicit in their resseages of arrival. J. S. Earman Inspector General cc: Director of Security Chief, WE Shief, EE